

WE'RE ON OUR WAY TO THE TOP

The HOUSING CHOICE VOUCHER PROGRAM at HANO (Housing Authority of New Orleans) is on its way to the TOP. I'm the new Administrative Receiver at HANO and I'm looking for the one person in the nation best able to lead us there. If you're that person, I'd like to talk with you.

To start, please write to me and tell me why you think you're the one and why you think you're up to the task. Tell me about your skills and experience as a leader, manager, creative thinker and innovator. Of course, if you have experience in the HCVP program, all the better. Tell me about that, too.

If it's just a job you're looking for, this probably isn't the one for you. But if you're seeking one of the most challenging and exciting career opportunities you've ever had and you are intrigued by the idea of rebuilding a troubled program, this might be it.

At this stage of the search, we won't worry about compensation. If you're the one, we'll do everything we can to make it all work. For now, let me hear from you if you believe you're the best around. You can email me directly at dgilmore@hano.org or by mail at HANO, 4100 Touro Street, New Orleans, LA 70122.
