INTRODUCTION

The Housing Authority of New Orleans (HANO) is committed to providing maximum economic opportunity to Disadvantaged Business Enterprises (DBE), including Minority and Women Owned Businesses, and Section 3/Resident Owned Businesses. HANO's objective is to promote DBE and Section 3 participation in the performance of contracts, financed in whole or in part with federal funds.

Additionally, to ensure that bidders, proposers and/or contractors and their subcontractors or suppliers will take all necessary and reasonable steps to ensure the DBE, Section 3/Resident Owned Businesses will have the maximum opportunity to complete for and perform contracts financed in whole or in part by federal funds.

STATED GOALS

The Housing Authority of New Orleans requires that bidders, proposers, contractors and vendors will use their best efforts to facilitate the involvement of DBE and Section 3/Resident Owned Businesses and Section 3 residents (training and employment opportunities) in the performance of HANO projects in meeting the stated participation goals which are:

❖ DBE	20%
❖ Section 3 Businesses	10%
❖ SECTION 3 / New Hires	30%
❖ Women Owned Businesses	5%
