HANO Administration and Property Management Offices Closed Tomorrow Due to Anticipated Inclement Weather

New Orleans, LA (August 23, 2020) – Due to inclement weather expected to include heavy rain and tropical storm force winds as a result of Hurricane Marco, the Housing Authority of New Orleans (HANO) will close its Administration and Property Management offices tomorrow, August 24, 2020.

HANO will continue to monitor the progression of Hurricane Marco and the path of Tropical Storm Laura, which is also expected to affect New Orleans, and will remain in constant contact with City of New Orleans officials to provide periodic updates as necessary.
