Chapter 2

ELIGIBILITY FOR ADMISSION

Other Criminal Records

Except as mandated by federal law, no applicant for HANO-assisted housing will be automatically barred from receiving housing assistance because of his or her criminal background.

For applicants not barred by federal law, the applicant's criminal conviction(s) will be assessed to determine the risk the applicant poses to the safety and well-being of the community using valid written criteria, applicable laws including fair housing laws, applicable regulations, and sound management practices. All third parties contracted after October 1, 2022 who are managing public housing units must adhere to this policy.

Applicants whose conviction(s) do not suggest a significant level of risk will be deemed admissible to housing if otherwise eligible.

Applicants whose conviction(s) suggest a significant level of risk will be reviewed by a panel of HANO officials or its Agents to assess, based on the totality of the circumstances including any information the applicant wishes to provide, whether the applicant should be admitted to housing or denied. HANO or its Agents may, at their full discretion, include external experts in the panel. If the panel recommends denial of an applicant, the applicant may request an appeal of the decision. All appeals shall follow the procedures in Chapter 14 of the ACOP: Complaints, Grievances, and Appeals. The risk assessment criteria HANO and its Agents use and the review process are detailed in the criminal background screening procedures.
