The Housing Authority of New Orleans Awarded HUD's Choice Neighborhoods Planning Grant for BW Cooper/Earhart Transformation Plan

Continuing the work of providing access to affordable housing for low-income residents of New Orleans

New Orleans (December 28, 2022) – The Housing Authority of New Orleans (HANO) is very pleased to announce that it has been selected by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) as an award recipient of the Choice Neighborhood Planning Grant for its BW Cooper/Earhart Transformation Plan.

HANO was one of 31 applications received by HUD from agencies nationwide competing for the fiscal year 2022 grants. After review of all applications, HUD selected nine grant recipients totaling over $4.4 million in funding.

HANO's awarded grant of $409,000 is slated for their BW Cooper Earhart Transformation Plan, which will address affordable housing units, design and structural work, neighborhood poverty, and community engagement.

"The Development and Modernization team worked diligently and tirelessly on this application in order to get all the facts, figures, vision and strategy included in the grant application," shared HANO Executive Director Evette Hester. She continued, "BW Cooper and the Earhart neighborhood have been a very important part of our city's affordable housing blueprint, so we are very excited to see HUD's support in continuing to sustain this neighborhood's offering of affordable housing to our residents."

HUD and HANO will be working closely together in the implementation and monitoring of the grant funds to meet all regulations, deadlines, and to achieve the outcome all are working towards – affordable, secure and accessible housing for the city of New Orleans.

About the Housing Authority of New Orleans
