

DocuSign for Contract Signing

HANO will now use the electronic signing system, DocuSign for Contract Signing for the Housing Choice Voucher Program. Instead of coming into HANO's office to sign the HAP Contract and other paperwork with HANO and your new tenant, HANO will e-mail the documents to both you and the tenant via DocuSign for signature. The signing process is simple, as outlined in the Quick Reference Guide below.

In order to complete this process, please provide to HANO your e-mail address and the e-mail address of your prospective tenant. This will be required at the time that a Leasing Packet/Request for Tenancy Approval is submitted to HANO for your unit. You will also need to provide HANO with a completed copy of the lease after your unit passes inspection and the rental amount for your unit is approved. HANO must receive a copy of the lease for review before sending the HAP Contract via DocuSign.

More information on how DocuSign works is available at www.docusign.com.
